GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The returns in the way of entries for the Saratoga stakes are gratifying. With California stables yet to be heard from, the entries for 1903 far exceed in numbers the entries for 1901 and 1902. Following is a comparative table for three years:

	1901.	1902.	1903.
Saratoga Handicap.....	65	79	90
Saratoga Cup.....	38	41	49
Saratoga Champion.....	—	—	53
Champlain Handicap.....	62	63	67
Merchants' & Citizens.....	28	80	84
Delaware Handicap.....	63	80	92
Amsterdam Selling Race.....	66	85	89
Catskill Selling Race.....	58	88	93
Saranac Handicap.....	52	67	70
Huron Handicap.....	54	48	67
Seneca Selling Race.....	64	72	82
Mohawk Selling Race.....	57	58	64
Saratoga Special.....	23	25	28
Adirondack Handicap.....	100	138	148
Kentucky Selling Race.....	93	105	109
Albany Handicap.....	111	125	141
Troy Selling Race.....	104	136	137
Ballston Cup.....	29	24	38
Beverly Handicap.....	42	42	76
Shillelagh Steeplechase.....	—	43	78

In the two-year-old specials, in which most of the other associations showed losses as compared with earlier years, the Saratoga Association shows a natural gain. This is due to two causes—the fact that the specials at the Springs have attracted western entries the other meetings could not get, and that the Saratoga season comes later.

Captain R. R. Rice has arrived at Clinton Park, Little Rock, with his string of thoroughbreds. His star performer, Wax Taper, is in the lot. Like most of the sons of Candemas, Wax Taper has always been uncertain about the legs, and at times last year it looked as though he would never race again. Captain Rice wisely retired him early and sent him to his Varner plantation, where he has, to all appearances, developed into a new horse. Possessed of every good point to be asked in a racehorse other than sound limbs, Wax Taper really failed to look the great horse he really is because of lack of flesh, but this defect has certainly been remedied this year. Reports say he has been well cared for at the farm, has taken on flesh and his legs look as firm and shapely as those of the soundest two-year-old at the track. He is a horse which proved two years ago that he was able to give weight and a beating to the best horses in training, east or west, and his first start at Little Rock will be watched with interest everywhere. W. B. Gates, another high-class performer in Captain Rice's string, vies with Wax Taper in the matter of good looks.

Winner—B. c. by Foul Shot—The Kitten (trained by W. Walker).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Mauser was never seriously bothered and had things all his own way throughout the last quarter. Flora Levy got a weak ride. Wishard took her back at the far turn and finished in the deep going next to the inside rail. Welcome Light ran poorly and can do better. Breaker ran well for the first three-quarters, but tired in the stretch run.
Overweights—Breaker, 2 1/2 pounds; Exapo, 1.

Went to post at 2:59. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Thane outclassed the field, despite the amount of weight he was conceding to everything in the race, made all his own pace and won in a canter after being eased up all of the last furlong. Ben Chance stumbled soon after the start and went to his knees, but was easily the best of the others. Blueblaze outgamed Dutch Carter in the final drive.
Scratched—(37800) Marshal Neil, 108.
No show betting on first three.

37827 FOURTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. The Crescent City Derby. $2,500 added.

Winner—Ch. f. by Mirthful—Response (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 3:33. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Witfull ran as if she outclassed the field, Gannon kept her on the extreme outside all of the way, wore the field down on the backstretch and went to the front without great effort and was eased up all of the last furlong. Rosanco closed up a big gap in the last quarter and finished fast. Birch Broom and Embarrassment were used up in setting the pace for the first five furlongs. Embarrassment weakened perceptibly when the pinch came and Birch Broom outgamed him at the end. Half of the track, next to the inner rail, was covered with water when the horses went to the post and the rain came down in torrents during the running.
Witfull, show, out. Rosanco, show, 3 to 5. Birch Broom, show, 2 to 5.

E BOHLMAN RULED OFF.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 14.—Upon complaint of E. Corrigan and, after a thorough investigation by the Stewards, E. Bohlman was today ruled off the turf for violating rule 157. The particular charge was an attempt to prevent a bid in the selling race, run March 9, won by E. & L. Bohlman's Leflare.

After due consideration of the appeal of jockey Buchanan, the Stewards found nothing to justify a moderation of the original ruling in his case.

LANSDOWN, 2 to 1, - - WON.

MATT HOGAN, 4 to 1, - - WON.

This pair was given to win on our daily card.

Ethylene, our choice good thing, was withdrawn. The two-year-old, which we advertised as a long shot, did not go on account of track conditions. Morris entry was substituted instead by our track experts.

Friday—EREMA, Finished 3rd; GYPSY BEN, Unplaced.

Thursday—GREENOCK, 4-1, plunge to the limit, won; JAMES F., 5-1, heavy, won.

Wednesday—BLESSÉ DAMOZEL, 7-2, Finished 2nd; JIM HALE, withdrawn.

Tuesday—VIRGIE D'OE, Heavy, Won; ROYAL ROGUE, Withdrawn.

Monday—ROWENA, 1-1, Heavy, Won. POSITION Finished 3rd.

Remember, two specials a day is our maximum. We publish both the losing and winning horses alike.

MONDAY

We will put two more good priced winners like the above over the plate.

WEDNESDAY

the biggest killing on record will be made. The trick that's to be cut loose worked Elliott, the best three-year-old on the Coast. The price against this dark secret will be from 12 to 25 to 1. This one is the surest of the sure. He will win laughing.

YOUR LAST CHANCE to even up matters at New Orleans. If you have been playing during the past month with little success then it is to your benefit to get the best that can be had during this last week. You know there will be

"SOMETHING DOING"

this week with the "LONG ONES." We are wise to four that will surely go over at odds around the twenty mark, and as Steensen is right on the ground he will most likely run up against a few more that will be worth your while to know about.

Winner—B. c. by Russell—Fancy Remnant (trained by E. W. Fitzgerald).

Went to post at 2:12. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Landsdown, lucky at the start and skillfully handled, decisively outraced and outstayed the field and won going away. Flamer worked a rough journey and closed up in the final quarter with a rush. Dotterel tired right at the end after a sharp brush, while in the deep going, with the winner. Tommy Knight closed up a great gap in the last half mile. Sea Lion, away slowly, steadily improved his position. Pat Morrissey tired. Somenos is evidently a non-stayer. Alice Cary, away badly, raced into prominence with a great burst of speed, but tired badly in the final drive.

Scratched—(37775)Velma Clark, 110; 37747 Educate, 103; 37794 Tyrannus, 102; 37737 Mr. Farnum, 94; 37734 Anvil, 91; 37721 Pure Dale, 89.

Winner—B. g. by Foul Shot—Berna, by Fetterlock (trained by F. Farrar).

Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Glissando, particularly favored by the stiff going, led throughout and finished with something in reserve. Choteau, repeatedly interfered with, went hopelessly wide on the turns, but finished fast. Formero, also favored by the difficult going, closed up a tremendous gap in the last six furlongs and but for crowding at the end would have been a sharp contender. Stella Perkins displayed early speed. Dagmar tired in the last fifty yards. Grand Sachem ran in improved form. Star Cotton was pocketed and crowded back on the backstretch and was in the worst going throughout.

Scratched—37808 Hutch Miller, 109; 37393 Pirate Maid, 94.

Overweights—Grand Sachem, 1 pound; Nilgar, 1.

Time, 25, 50, 1:17.

Winner—B. g. by Wagner—Miss Hight (trained by W. P. Magrane).

Went to post at 3:09. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Matt Hogan, lucky at the start, picked the best going and drew clear of the field on the far turn and easily retained his advantage to the end. MIMO ran a game race, but fell away unexpectedly on the stretch turn and then came again. Ned Dennis was particularly favored by the going and closed up a gap in the last half. Mexicana received a bad ride, she was rushed into the lead in the first quarter and taken through the deep going next to the inner rail and was probably best. Little Margaret tired after being prominent for the first half and was evidently handicapped by the going. Quiz was probably short, but appears to be in good form.

Winner—Br. f. by Altamex—Picnic (trained by C. T. Patterson).

Went to post at 3:38. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Rowena, very fit and favored by the stiff going, closed up steadily on the outside in the best going and finished fast after a long stretch drive. Rapid Water, poorly ridden and forced out of his position on the far turn, came through in the worst going and was fast wearing the winner down. Celebrant was in the bad going throughout and repeatedly bumped in the last furlong by the winner and ran a high class race. Dr. Rowell ran a good race and was a sharp contender when a sixteenth out. Selected tired after going a good half. Precious Stone bolted in the early stages and carried H. L. Frank with him. This effectually destroyed the latter's chances. Libbie Candid displayed a lot of speed, but tired badly in the stretch run.

Scratched—(37411)Planet, 107.

Winner—B. g. by Cicero—Leap Year (trained by W. L. Appleby).

Went to post at 4:08. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won in a canter; second driving. Graftor moved up fast and took the lead on the far turn, coming away without great urging and was eased up at the end. Grail ran in improved form and was in the worst going throughout. Epicure went hopelessly wide from start to finish and was badly ridden. He tired in the going as if not fit. Time, 25 1/2, 50 1/2, 1:16 1/2, 1:42 1/2, 1:45 1/2.

Winner—B. h. by Cavalier—Lena Oliver (trained by F. Phillips).

Went to post at 4:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Sam Fullen received a skillful and patient ride, picked the best going and finished with a rush on the outside. Ben Mac Dhui followed the fast pace closely throughout and took apparently a winning lead in the last sixteenth only to be caught napping in the last few strides. Dunblane stumbled at the start, raced into the lead on the first turn, but was in the worst going for seven furlongs and was tiring at the end. Horton trailed to the far turn where he moved up fast, but was forced into the deep going next to the rail in the final drive and was probably short. Galanthus came fast in the last furlong after meeting with serious interference at the half. Diderot was prominent for six furlongs.

Scratched—37738 Lady Kent, 103; 37797 Ethylene, 98.

Sam Fullen, show, evens. Ben Mac Dhui, show, 1 to 2. Dunblane, show, 7 to 10. Horton, show, 2 to 5.

First Race—Salvar or Evander.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

P. Dunne, who has his horses in training at Louisville, has written to Bishop Poole, trainer for Tichenor & Co., asking him to take charge of six head of horses that will be shipped to Memphis for the spring meeting. Included in the lot is Early, the three-year-old son of Troubadour—Miss Dawn, which will be one of the contenders in the Tennessee Derby, set for April 7. John McGurk, Dunne's Montgomery Handicap candidate, is also among the lot that Dunne will ship to Poole. Poole has had experience training Derby candidates before, having handled May Hempstead, winner of the 1899 Tennessee Derby. Besides holding the honor of being the only filly to succeed in winning the Memphis blue ribbon race, May Hempstead achieved distinction by winning the Tennessee Oaks of her year, and this dual win of the Memphis classics is also a record.

The following is taken from an eastern exchange of March 12:

"The training conditions at Morris Park yesterday were far from being propitious. A fog hung over the course all the morning, drizzling rain fell at intervals, the atmosphere was damp and unpleasant, and there were but few racers seen on the course. The track, however, notwithstanding the late rains, was in good condition. It was a bit moist, of course, but in no way preventive of work.

"Aside from the J. McLaughlin string which is being readied up for the Bennings meeting, now close at hand, there were no racers shown at exercise over it. Trainer McLaughlin, however, who realizes the exigencies of the occasion, had his racers out, and their gallops were satisfactory.

"It is known to him that the Bennings track is not in the best condition, and, that being the case, it is up to him to ready his racers up before going there.

"The Morris Park course was never in better condition. The late rains have, of course, softened it a bit, but it is safe and sound, and fit for any racer to get his preparation over. With this view of the situation in mind, Mr. McLaughlin is wasting no time in getting ready, and his racers are being sent down the line at speed enough to insure their being fit when they reach Bennings.

"The T. J. Healey racers, Dixieline, Mexican, Highlander and Carbuncle, were sent to easy exercise around the confines of the stable. They all look well and ready for the sterner work that is soon to begin.

"The stable's two-year-old Juvenile Stake eligibles, bay colt by G. W. Johnson, bay colt by Ormonde or St. Gatten—Lady Marian, bay colt by Madison—Sister Tenny, bay colt by Tithonus—Tommie Belle and chestnut colt by Ornament—Ada IV., were allowed the same variety of exercise. On present appearance, this quartette outlook many youngsters that have been inspected, and it would be a great disappointment to many if they don't make good.

"Pittsburg Phil's Chilton, which looks in prime shape, in company with Grand Opera, Stevedore and others, was allowed jogging exercise around the stable's shed. Chilton is a horse which is much in the eye of the trainers at the course, and they are watching his every move. So far he has filled the bill excellently. His legs are smooth and hard, he has not taken a false step, and at present looks the part of a racer that would stand the training ordeal. Grand Opera and Stevedore, look in fine condition, and their owner should not be disappointed in them.

J. C. Milam has in training at Lexington seventeen horses, and the best looking one of the lot, according to reports, is Owenton, the colt which went wrong last year at a time when it was thought that he had a royal chance for the American Derby and something like $15,000 had been refused for him. Owenton is all right again and will be raced this year.

ANTE-POST ODDS.
